If Customer does not perform its obligations in a timely manner, then Peakon may reasonably adjust the delivery plan for the Services.

1.6 Peakon may modify the Documentation and System if it does not materially reduce the functionality of the System (and may provide alternative features that have materially the same benefits as the previous feature).

1.7 Peakon may use the name and logo of Customer for promotional and marketing purposes.

Should Peakon determine that any Excessive Usage has occurred, Peakon reserves the right to require Customer to account to Peakon for any charges incurred by Peakon as a result of such usage.

4. CHARGES AND PAYMENT

4.1 Customer shall pay Peakon the subscription fees and charges specified in the Order Form for Customer’s use of the System and the Services (the “Charges”). The Charges are non-cancellable and non-refundable (except if this agreement is terminated by Customer for Peakon’s material breach, in which case Peakon will refund any prepaid fees covering the remainder of the then-current Subscription Term). Customer shall pay the Charges within 30 days of receiving Peakon’s invoice.

4.2 Unless otherwise specified in the Order Form, Subscription fees shall be invoiced on or around the “Effective Date” for the initial Subscription Term (each as specified in the Order Form) and on or around the beginning of each subsequent minimum renewal period of 12 months (“Renewal Periods”) in advance thereafter (or

If Peakon has a legal obligation to pay or collect Taxes for which Customer is responsible under this agreement, the appropriate amount will be computed based on Customer’s address listed in the Order Form, and invoiced to and paid by Customer, unless Customer provides Peakon with a valid tax exemption certificate authorised by the appropriate taxing authority.

4.4 Except for fees subject to a reasonable and good faith dispute, if a payment remains unpaid for more than 90 days after the expiry of the payment term in section 4.1 and Peakon has provided at least 30 days’ written notice to Customer, then: (a) Peakon may suspend the Services, without liability to Customer, until such amounts are paid in full, and (b) interest shall accrue on a daily basis at an annual rate equal to 3%.

7.3.1 the indemnifying party being given prompt notice of any matter for which indemnified party wishes to be indemnified;

7.3.2 the indemnified party providing reasonable co-operation in the defence and settlement of the relevant claim, at the indemnifying party's expense; and

7.3.3 the indemnifying party being given sole authority to defend or settle the relevant claim, provided that no settlement shall be made which prejudices the indemnified party's rights or imposes any obligations on it without its prior written approval (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

7.4 In the defence or settlement of any third party claim, Peakon may procure the right for Customer to continue using the System, replace or modify the System so that it becomes non-infringing or, if such remedies are not reasonably available, terminate this agreement on two business days' notice to Customer without any additional liability.

7.5 Peakon will not be liable to Customer to the extent that an alleged infringement is based on:

7.5.1 a modification of the Services or Documentation by anyone other than Peakon or its subcontractors;

7.5.2 Customer's use of the Services or Documentation in a manner contrary to the instructions given by Peakon; or

7.5.3 Customer's use of the Services or Documentation after notice of the alleged infringement.

7.6 The foregoing states Customer's sole and exclusive rights and remedies, and Peakon's entire obligations and liability, for infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights.

7.7 Each party shall make reasonable efforts to mitigate any loss, damage or liability it may suffer or incur as a result of a breach by the other party of this agreement or in respect of which it seeks indemnification from the other party under this agreement.

8.3 Subject to section 8.2:

8.3.1 neither party shall be liable to the other party, whether in contract, tort (including for negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise for (a) any loss of profits, loss of business, depletion of goodwill or similar losses or loss or corruption of data or information, or pure economic loss, or (b) for any indirect or consequential loss; however arising under or in connection with this agreement, provided that this section shall not apply to limit or exclude any obligation to pay the Charges or any charges that may be owed by Customer in respect of any Excessive Usage; and

9. TERM AND TERMINATION

9.1 This agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and continue for the initial Subscription Term and for successive Renewal Periods thereafter, unless (a) either party notifies the other of its intention to terminate, giving at least 30 days’ written notice, to take effect at the expiry of the initial Subscription Term or then-current Renewal Period, or (b) otherwise terminates in accordance with this section.

9.3 On termination of this agreement for any reason: (a) Customer shall cease using the System and the Documentation, (b) each party shall return and make no further use of any equipment, property, Documentation and other items (and all copies of them) belonging to the other party, (c) without prejudice to Peakon’s rights in respect of Anonymised Data as set out in the Data Processing Agreement, Peakon shall delete Customer Data within 90 days of the termination of this agreement (unless otherwise requested by Customer to delete sooner), provided that Customer Data contained on backup copies of Peakon’s databases shall not be deleted for up to 180 days from the date of termination, upon expiry of the then-current backup, and Customer shall be entitled to export aggregated Customer Data via the data export functionality within the System, and (d) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination shall not be affected.

9.4 Any provision of this agreement that expressly or by implication is intended to operate after expiration or termination of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

10. GENERAL

10.1 Except in relation to Customer’s obligation to pay the Charges, neither party shall have any liability for non or delayed performance by events beyond its reasonable control, provided that the other party is notified of such event and its expected duration and such affected party uses reasonable endeavours to mitigate its effect. If a party is prevented due to any such events from substantially performing its obligations under this agreement for a period in excess of 30 consecutive days, then the other party may terminate this agreement on 30 days' written notice.

10.4 No variation of this agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties’ authorised representatives.

10.5 No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

10.6 Except as expressly provided in this agreement, the rights and remedies provided under this agreement are in addition to any rights or remedies provided by law.

Customer keeping its account active shall be deemed to be an instruction to Peakon to continue to process the Personal Data to allow use of the System. Peakon shall anonymise Personal Data after it has been held on the System for more than five years.

1.6 Save for where Customer uses the consent mechanism available in the System to capture Authorised Users’ sensitive attributes, Customer shall not (and shall not permit its Authorised Users to) configure the System dashboard or other interface by reference to, or devise or undertake any surveys or analysis using the System by reference to, any special category of personal data (within the meaning of the GDPR), namely: racial or ethnic origin; political opinions; religious or philosophical beliefs; trade union membership; genetic or biometric data; health data; sex life or sexual orientation, without obtaining Peakon’s prior written consent. Peakon and Customer shall document any relevant contractual requirements of Customer, as required under applicable Data Protection Legislation, to ensure compliant transfer and processing of such Personal Data outside the European Economic Area. In this respect the parties hereby agree that, unless the relevant transfer is to a third party based in a country confirmed as having adequate data protection safeguards by the European Commission, they will adopt the standard contractual clauses for data export as stipulated from time to time by the European Commission, insofar as and for so long as such contractual clauses remain legally valid and enforceable.

This Annex will also apply to any services to be provided under an Order Form that are described as “Professional Services” and will form part of the agreement entered into by the parties. Professional Services will be deemed to be Services.

1. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

1.1 Peakon shall provide the Professional Services to Customer as set out in the Order Form and according to any specifications provided by Peakon, subject to Customer’s payment of the applicable Charges. Any changes to the Professional Services will be subject to a change order being signed by the parties before the change is implemented. Peakon shall use reasonable efforts to deliver the Professional Services by any specified delivery dates but such dates are estimates.

1.2 The use of the System shall be governed by the agreement and not this Annex and Customer’s right to use the System will be subject to an applicable Order Form. The purchase of Professional Services is not dependent on the delivery of any future functionality or features in the System.

1.3 Customer shall reasonably co-operate and assist Peakon in relation to the Professional Services, including: (a) allocating sufficient resources and promptly performing any tasks reasonably necessary to enable Peakon to perform the Professional Services, (b) promptly providing any necessary information, documentation, equipment or other materials, and (c) informing Peakon in advance of any applicable security or health and safety rules that apply to any site visits. Peakon shall not be liable for any delay or failure in performing the Professional Services as a result of Customer failing to provide such cooperation and assistance and may charge Customer for additional resulting costs that it incurs in performing the Professional Services.

1.4 Customer shall notify Peakon of any failure of the Professional Services to comply with this agreement within 30 days of completion. Peakon shall either reperform or otherwise remedy the Professional Services or refund the Charges for the deficient part of the Professional Services.

2. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

2.1 Subject to payment of the Charges, Peakon hereby grants Customer a non-exclusive, perpetual, sublicensable right to use the deliverables (if applicable) for Customer’s internal business purposes.

3. CHARGES AND PAYMENT

3.1 Customer shall pay the Charges specified in the Order Form, or if no rate is specified, Peakon’s standard rates in effect at the time the Order Form is executed. If the total Charges are stated to be an estimate then the actual Charges will only exceed the estimate with Customer’s prior written approval or Peakon will cease the Professional Services when the estimate is reached.

3.2 With Customer’s prior written approval, Peakon may charge for its travel and related out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred by the individuals performing the Professional Services.

3.3 The Charges for Professional Services shall be invoiced on or around the Effective Date as specified on the Order Form by Peakon.

3.4 If this agreement terminates before completion of the Professional Services then Customer shall pay any unpaid Charges incurred before the termination date (pro-rated for fixed fees on a percent-completed basis). Pre-paid fees will be reimbursed to the extent they relate to after the termination date where Customer terminates for cause, but not otherwise. Unless otherwise specified in the Order Form, in the event that Customer has pre-purchased a block of Professional Services time, any unused time shall expire at the later of: (a) twelve months from the start date of purchase of such time; or (b) the end date of the applicable Subscription Term.

3.5 All sums payable to Peakon shall become due immediately upon termination of this Annex.
